FORMER AGGIE HEADS MERIDEN REPUBLICANS

"BRUB" DOW LEADS G. O. P.

Class of '20 Man; Former Campus Editor and Active in Hill Activities

Everett D. Dow, '21, formerly of Hartford and leader in many activities while at C. A. C., was elected temporary chairman of the Meriden Republican Club which he has been energetically organizing in anticipation of the fall elections.

Many old grads will remember "Brub" as organizer and president of the Republican Club at Storrs during the Harding campaign.

Prominent at C. A. C.

"Brub" spent his first two years in the ranks of the School of Agriculture and was, therefore, well primed to manage the numerous college activities with which he became connected in his next four years on the Hill. He is best remembered as editor-in-chief of the Connecticut Campus, which he developed into one of the best small college newspapers in the east. He was also editor-in-chief of the Nutmeg, president of the Press Club, manager of football, varsity cheer leader, and member of the Blackguards, Theta Alpha Phi, Druids, and Gamma Chi Epsilon. He was one of the organizers and national presidents of the national fraternity of Phi Mu Delta.

Since leaving college, "Brub" has served as shipping editor for the Philadelphia Inquirer and was, for a time, a member of the staff of the Hartford Courant. He is at present with the Meriden Morning Record.

"FRESHMAN BIBLE" APPEARS ON CAMPUS

EDITED BY F. W. METZGER

Handbook has Neat Appearance.—
Limited Number for Sale to Upperclassmen.

Distribution of the 1923 handbooks began last Wednesday when they appeared on the Hill. Their belated arrival for distribution was caused by a tie-up at the printer's office.

Frederick W. Metzger, '24, was the editor of the book, while Lawrence V. Castiglione, '24, was its business manager. E. I. Collins was assistant editor and will edit next year's Handbook. F. W. Metzger is also Editor-in-Chief of the Campus, and was on the 1923 Nutmeg board. He has been very active in publications since arriving on the Hill. L. V. Castiglione demonstrated his business ability by capably managing finances of the publication.

Best Handbook Yet

New features embodied in the "Freshman Bible" make it the best handbook ever put out here. A large golden "C" is imprinted on the surface of the black cover lending to its attractiveness. Valuable data included in the book's contents are as follows: History of the College; a list of "Who's Who" on the Hill; the academic calendar, and the constitutions of the Students' Organization and the Athletic Association. A memorandum in the back of the book will prove useful. For the benefit of the Class of 1927 the freshman rules and the college songs and cheers are included.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE TELLS PLANS FOR COLLEGE YEAR

MUCH AMUSEMENT COMING

Pictures and Concerts Included in the Schedule of Entertainments to be Given This Year.

Plans of the Social Committee for the coming year are not yet completed but to date it has contracted a number of engagements which measure up to the standard of the pictures shown by the committee last year.

"Olives Twist" Coming

For this week the committee has secured the photoplay "The Prisoner of Zenda." Among the pictures which have been secured for the remainder of the year is "Oliver Twist" to be shown here on October 20. Last year this picture was, through accident, totally destroyed by fire while being shown. Because of the keen interest shown in the picture at the time the committee has arranged to show it once more. For October 27 there is scheduled "The Toll of the Sea," the first picture to be successfully shown in colors.

In addition to the pictures named above, the committee has plans under way for three or four concerts. Two that are already selected are "A Bewildering Illusion" and Robert Burns well-known comedy "A Cotters Saturday Night." The first named entertainment is one in which an artist very skillfully makes sketches in crayon colors and in sand. This entertainment is scheduled for October 31.

DEBATING ACTIVITY STARTING STRONG

SCHEDULE BEING FIXED

Eight Candidates Try Out.—Discussion of Co-ed Eligibility.

Plans for the coming year in debate at Connecticut were discussed by an enthusiastic group which met in Gully Hall Wednesday night.

Mr. Charles D. Christoph, coach of debate and adviser of the club, talked on the prospects for debate. He believes that the activity this year will be even stronger than it was last year.

Strong Teams to be Met

Manager Loeb of intercollegiate debate outlined the schedule in so far as it has been tentatively formed. Tufts, Springfield, Trinity, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Massachusetts are being considered as opponents of the Aggie speakers.

E. I. Collins, president of Pi Kappa Delta, explained the purposes of the new fraternity, which is the Connecticut Alpha chapter of a large national forensic fraternity. The Pi Kappa Delta key was held out to the men as a strong inducement to work hard and achieve distinction in intercollegiate debate.

Freshman—Sophomore Debate

A discussion followed regarding the Freshman-Sophomore debate, which will probably be held in late November this year. It was announced that Pi Kappa Delta, which awards the trophy, would draw up a set of rules to govern the contest immediately.

President D'Esopo appointed a committee consisting of E. I. Collins and L. A. Loeb to consider a plan by which the co-eds can take part in the debating activity.

Try-outs Next Week

Eight candidates were present at the meeting, seven of whom were

Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic fraternity having over 75 chapters, announces the granting of a charter to be known as the Connecticut Alpha chapter to Alpha Lambda Alpha, a local debating fraternity at the Connecticut Agricultural College. At present there are five active members of the new fraternity: Dr. Henry K. Denlinger, Mr. Charles D. Christoph, E. I. Collins, Oscar D'Esopo, and W. A. Hutton. In addition to these men, there are several alumni members. Installation will take place soon at the college, followed by a banquet.

Both Teams Have The Old Aggie Fight

AGGIES LOSE TO TUFTS IN HARD BATTLE TWO TOUCHDOWNS SPELL DEFEAT

BLUE AND WHITE PLAYS EXCELLENT FOOTBALL

Rallies by Tufts on Goal Line Thwart Aggie Backs.—Tufts Outplayed in Two Quarters.—Captain O'Neil, Filmer, Swem and Moreland Star for Connecticut.—Entire Team Shows Magnificent Fighting Spirit.

Eddie Casey's Tufts College eleven won from the Aggies at Tufts Oval last Saturday afternoon, 14 to 0. The Jumbos started in with a rush and in the first few minutes of play carried the ball across the line for the first touchdown. Galvariski, the husky Bay State fullback, intercepted a forward pass in the fourth quarter which netted Tufts their second and last touchdown.

Tufts Scores Early

Nanfaldt kicked off for the Aggies and Kenneally ran the ball back to the 50 yard line. Cohen then took the ball and ran it to the 38 yard line. After failing to gain any ground, French uncorked a pass to Kenneally who took it to the 15 yard mark. Cohen then took the ball and carried it across the goal line. He also kicked the goal.

Aggie Line Holds

In the second quarter the Tufts men could not break through the Aggie stonewall and after several unsuccessful attempts resorted to kicking the ball. This quarter was featured by the all around playing of Moreland for the Aggie and the lightning rapidity with which Cook got thru the Nutmeg line for several sensational tackles. This quarter was Connecticut's from start to finish.

In the third quarter Coach Dole's charges were in possession of the ball almost all of the time, failing at the goal line twice when the Jumbos rallied their defense. Moreland resorted to forward passes almost entirely during the last two periods. At one time a forward pass from Moreland to Swem brought the Blue and White within one step of a touchdown, but the midget Aggie halfback was caught by the collar and held back.

Capt. O'Neil Shines

Cohen, French and Galvariski starred for the Medford outfit but were all out-shadowed by Captain O'Neil's brilliant playing for the Aggies. Filmer and Swem, the Nutmeg halfbacks made long gains around end,

HARDEST GAME ON SCHEDULE SATURDAY

AGGIES OUT TO WIN

Squad Has Stiff Sessions This Week.—Maine Strong—Crowd Expected.

Next Saturday will witness one of the hardest contested gridiron games which will be played on Gardner Dow Field this season. The powerful Maine eleven will invade Storrs to play Coach Dole's charges. The only prediction which can be made is that it will be the best home game of the season.

Maine held Dartmouth to six points last Saturday, and Vermont won 7-6 the week before. These teams are as good as any in the East with the exception of the big three. Maine's line and backfield are much heavier than the home team, but the old fight and pep is expected to bring the Storrs boys through with flying colors. The blue and white gave Tufts too much trouble to satisfy the Medford team last week, and the Aggies are in better shape than ever before for tomorrow's game.

No Change in Line-up

The same line-up will probably be used again this week. Captain O'Neil will alternate on the line and in the backfield. Nanfeldt will play defensive tackle in his place. Swem and Filmer will hold down the halfback positions, and Moreland will call signals. The line will remain intact, with Brink and Dunn holding down the wings. Coach Dole has sent the Aggies through a hard drill this week and is strengthening the weak points brought out in the Tufts game.

The freshmen had a good, old-fashioned "feed" at the church Wednesday night. While regretting that it was unable to get an account of the event for this week's issue, the Campus promises to print a full story of the affair in next week's issue.

CROSBY POWERLESS AGAINST FROSH YEARLINGS WIN FIRST GAME 13-0

AGGIES GET SEVEN FIRST DOWNS.—GAIN AT WILL

Freshman Line Impregnable.—Backfield Shines.—Forward Pass Accounts for One Touchdown.—First Freshman Varsity Game Ever Played at Connecticut.—Swift and Purcell Star for Crosby.

FOLLOW THE BALL

The Frosh came through against Crosby. A powerful team—slightly nervous—full of Aggie spirit—good game.

*****

Perfect football weather prevailed Saturday afternoon, but only a small crowd on the sidelines. Where were the rest—at home, or in the dorms?

*****

The biggest crowd of the year should be out next Saturday. The varsity takes on Maine, while Springfield freshmen will battle the Aggie yearlings. A double-header against teams of this calibre is worth traveling to see.

*****

Varsity lost at Tufts, but gave the Medford eleven a stiff battle. "I was lucky to win that game," said Eddie Casey.

*****

Bob Berry, brilliant Aggie quarterback last year, starred for Springfield against Vermont Saturday. He made the only touchdown against the Vermont eleven. Bob tore off consistent gains, several times reversing his field and once intercepting a pass and making a long run.

*****

Another former Aggie star, Beano Graf, was in the Springfield line on Saturday. This is Beano's last year in college football, and the big boy is playing the game as never before.

*****

Connecticut games seem to run in two scores. First three games this fall, and first few games last year were won or lost by that margin.

*****

As expected, Rhody gave Harvard a good practice session. However, the Kingston team battled hard, and we note that McIntosh, who was the big

Coach Alexander's yearling team opened their 1923 football campaign last Saturday when they defeated the Crosby High School team of Waterbury by a 13 to 0 score. Though Crosby presented a formidable outfit they failed to make a single first down or to complete a forward pass, while the 1927 Aggie team succeeded in making seven first downs and completed three forward passes in five attempts; one pass, Andrew to Gronberg, resulting in a touchdown. The bright lights of the game were the impregnable defense of the Frosh line and the brilliant gains of Andrew and Reeves thru the Crosby line.

Crosby Fails to Gain

The game opened with Andrew kicking off to the Brass City lads, the ball going to the 30 yard line. Crosby punted to the Aggie team. On the next play Crosby gained the ball on a fumble. For the next few minutes both teams played a punting game. Crosby then decided to keep the ball, but on each following play was tackled for losses. The ball was punted to Andrew who ran it back five yards. Gronberg made eight yards through the Crosby line and Reeves made it first down on a line plunge. At this period of the game the quarter ended.

Andrew Goes Over

When play was resumed Andrew brought the ball to the seven yard line. Gronberg carried the ball to the one yard line and Reeves brought the ball to six inches of a touchdown. On the next play Andrew took the ball over for the first six points. Andrew then attempted a kick from placement but Captain Swift of Crosby broke the Aggie line and blocked the kick. Andrew opened the second half by kicking off to the 10 yard line. Crosby punted the ball back. Crosby broke up an Aggie pass. A pass, Andrew to Reeves netted fifteen yards but the ball was brought back and the Freshmen were penalized five yards for off side play. Andrew punted to Crosby.

PLAN ALUMNI HOMECOMING FOR C. C. N. Y. GAME

The game with City College of N. Y. on November 3 has been chosen as the alumni home coming occasion this year. Although the alumni association is not attempting a reunion of last year's magnitude, the field secretary expects that a number of state alumni will be attracted by notices of the contest appearing in the October issue of the Connecticut Alumnus.

The two games with Springfield and Maine on Saturday should also find a number of loyal grads on the sidelines.

JOHNSON HEADS VARSITY CLUB DANCE COMMITTEE

Among the first of the dances to be given on the Hill this year is the one for which the Varsity Club is at present making preparations. At a recent meeting of that organization President E. M. Eddy appointed a committee consisting of V. A. Johnson, chairman, W. S. Moreland and Seymour Squires to have charge of the dance.

thorn in Aggie's side last year, is in the lineup again.

*****

The frosh sure have one whale of a line. Lally of Crosby is a good kicker, but did not show up against the Aggies. The Storrs forwards hurried his boots too much for Lally's comfort.

*****

And don't forget that backfield. Schofield, Andrew, Gronberg and Reeves, make a classy quartet. They are in there fighting all the time.

*****

Billy Schofield's father watched the frosh quarter make his debut on a collegiate gridiron. "Good work," was his verdict when the contest was over.

*****

MAUL MAINE AND SMASH SPRINGFIELD!

The half may run for forty-odd,
The full may buck for five;
The quarter's the brain behind every game,
And he keeps the team alive.
But when the tiers are arock with cheers
And the air's like a nip of wine—
Here's a toast to the souls that open the holes
Down in the muck of the line!

FRESHMAN RULES

Each year rules are drawn up by members of the sophomore class regulating certain matters of conduct among the freshmen. These rules were ratified by the Student Senate and impose no hardship on anyone. As time goes on, however, the enforcement of the regulations becomes rather lax and offenses are overlooked.

This year has proved to be no exception in this respect. If anything, the reaction has set in earlier than formerly. From general observation one is lead to believe this has been due to a lack of concerted interest on the part of the sophomore class. In all fairness, it may be stated that many have done their best to see that the rules are obeyed, but a commendable unwillingness to play the part of chief overseer has caused them to relinquish their efforts.

If the sophomore class intends to enforce the rules it must do it as a class and not thru individuals. This course may be complicated somewhat by the fraternity rushing and because of friends among the freshmen. But on the other hand the welfare of the college comes first and all other things should give way before it. If a freshman disobeys a rule and is observed doing so he should pay the penalty no matter who he may be. Forget fraternity and personal affairs and work for the college.

THE DATE SCHEDULE

A date schedule for the current year was recently adopted by the Student Senate after careful deliberation on suitable times for the meeting of all activities. This schedule has been printed in the Campus and posted on all bulletin boards. Leaders of college activities would do well to familiarize themselves with this order of meetings, before calling a gathering of their respective organizations, in order that there may be ample time and no confusion in regard to the dates of meetings.

THE FIRST HOME GAME

The Blue and White varsity will play its first home game Saturday after a very creditable showing in the first games of the season. There is no question but what Connecticut is represented by a fighting team which is ready to do its best, and then some, for the college.

It remains, then, for the student body to do as much for the team. Every student on the Hill should be out on the field Saturday afternoon when the game starts, ready to support the eleven until the final whistle blows. Forget that week-end trip home and call off work for the afternoon. And above all, sit in the stands. Don't string all over the field. Good cheering demands a compact group. The game can be observed in its entirety from the Connecticut side of the field and the opposite section is reserved for opposing rooters and visitors.

AT OTHER COLLEGES

That the sophomore class of Boston College has either a well developed sense of humor or the problem of running a day nursery in their freshman class, may be found in the following rules drawn for the benefit of their yearlings. Among a long list of "don'ts" we note that no freshman is permitted to bring marbles, tops, jackstones, or any other of their accustomed playthings to class. They must refrain from rolling hoops on the campus, or sliding down stairway bannisters. Riding to school on tricycles, because of the danger, is prohibited. Freshmen must not smoke cigarettes—candy cigars are the limit of their indulgence.

A committee composed of citizens of the city of Rochester is already engaged in laying plans for a drive in the near future to obtain ten million dollars for buildings and endowment for the new men's College of Arts and Science of the University of Rochester.

From the Trinity Tripod we learn that a new budget system, which guarantees financial support to all college activities, goes into effect with the beginning of the present college year at Trinity. The Trinity system provides for a certain assessment of each member of the college, the amount varying with the classes. The seniors pay $22.00, the juniors pay $26.00, the lower classes pay $18.00. This money is paid into one fund, and from it are drawn the expenses for such activities as the "Ivy", the Trinity College yearbook, Union dues, and other expenses which the students are expected to bear.

CONN. STATE HERD WINS
FROM BEST IN U. S.

STUDENT TEAM STRONG

John Visney Wins Boys' Judging Contest and Connecticut Team Wins Also.

In a sweeping victory at the National Dairy Show at Syracuse, Connecticut Holstein and Jersey herds, chosen from the best stock of these breeds in the state by A. R. Merrill, extension dairy specialist, and G. C. White, professor of dairy husbandry, won first place in the national contests and second place in international competition, being defeated in the latter instance by Canada.

The Connecticut Holstein herd won first place at the Eastern States Exposition at Springfield in September, but the Jersey herd had never shown as a group previous to the show at Syracuse.

Boys and Girls Win

Highest honors also came to Connecticut boys, representing the Nutmeg State in the cattle judging contests open to boys and girls from the agricultural clubs, whose team secured the highest number of points. John Visney of Bethel had the highest individual score in competition open to the world. Other members of the winning team were Frank Hopkins of Hawleyville and Chester Woodford of Hartford County.

The student cattle judging team which won first place at the Eastern States Exposition recently dropped to fourteenth place out of a field of twenty-nine college teams at the Syracuse show. Competition was very keen and the scores close.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT HAS NEW SYSTEM

SOPHS AND FROSH APART

Fall Inspection October 29.—Rifle Teams To Be Picked

The Military Department has started the new year under a new system. Captain Crim and Lieutenant Passmore with the aid of two sergeants have organized the companies, which are three in number. The sophomores will be in a company of their own and will be called A Company. The freshmen will have two companies, B and C.

The sophomores this year will get more theory and less drill, and it is planned to have one sophomore platoon work with the freshmen while the other will have practical work in whatever they are taking in class.

Owing to the fact that there were complaints last year about student firing service ammunition with service rifles from the dormitories, the rifles are to be returned each Friday after drill to the gun room in the basement of the Armory, which is fitted up for that purpose.

Captain Crim is expecting Lt. Col. Goodale about October 29 for the fall inspection.

A rifle team is to be organized soon also, and it is expected that we will have a very good one this year. It is also planned to participate in the corps area matches this year which we did not enter last year.

Prof. H. A. Seckerson Outlines Movement and Cast Presents Play

In the absence of Prof. B. W. Brown of the English department at Brown University, who was scheduled to speak on the Little Theatre Movement at President's Hour this week, Prof. H. A. Seckerson briefly outlined the work of the students who have been engaged in promoting the Little Theatre Movement throughout the state this past summer.

"The Trysting Place"

Under Prof. Seckerson's direction a small number of students have travelled about one thousand miles and have put on from forty to fifty plays in various Connecticut towns during the summer months. To illustrate the kind of work done, the cast that has been playing during the summer presented "The Trysting Place" by Booth Tarkington, after Prof. Seckerson had concluded his talk. The parts and those who took them are:

LITTLE THEATRE PLAYERS TO PRESENT NEW PLAY

"The Importance of Being Ernest"
Will be Given November 9.—Movement has Received Considerable Popularity During Past Summer.

The group of State College players connected with the "Little Theatre" movement started by Prof. H. A. Seckerson last year, and continued by them through the summer, are working on a play to be presented here on November 9th.

The play, "The Importance of Being Ernest", was first produced in St. James Theatre, London, and is a three act comedy of the cleverest order. The setting of the play is in England and the characters are typical English gentry with their bluntness and seeming simplicity played on in such a manner as to be irresistibly humorous throughout.

Fifty Plays Produced

The State College players have traveled over a large part of the state during the summer and fall and have put on in the neighborhood of fifty plays. They bid fair to be extremely busy this winter with the fast growing movement. Mr. Seckerson is continually receiving requests to visit various communities with his little troupe and present plays, for the movement has been received with much enthusiasm and has progressed far more rapidly than those who were first acquainted with it had expected.

FROSH TO CLASH WITH SPRINGFIELD YOUNGSTERS

Freshman Game to Precede Varsity
Contest on Saturday Afternoon.

A hard fought contest is expected in the preliminary to the varsity game on Saturday afternoon when the Aggie freshman take on the Springfield 1927 team. Coach Alexander has had his men hard at work for the past week in preparation for the event and faults which were obvious in the first game seem to have been eliminated.

The Springfield frosh usually have a fast combination and will no doubt offer a stiff battle to the Connecticut team. Owing to several changes in the lineup due to injuries and the like, no exact advance statement can be made in reference to the team which will take the field against the invaders. Ryan, Scofield and Gray are on the injured list and will no doubt be out for some time. However, the initial whistle is almost certain to see Captain Zollin, Daly, Andrews, Flaxman, Gronberg, Reeves, Hoadley and Lorentzon on the field.

The game will start promptly at one-thirty.

DAIRY JUDGING TEAM SCORES AT NATIONAL

Judging against twenty-eight other teams, a great percent of which were crack teams from the West, the Dairy Cattle Judging team from this college placed fourteenth in the list of twenty-nine collegiate judging teams at the National Dairy Show in Syracuse.

The Connecticut team was fifth in the judging of Ayrshires. Wilfred L. Burgess did the best individual work, tying for third place in the judging of Guernseys.

You Freshmen Probably Can't Answer This—

"What is the best milk producing feed?"—so we'll tell you; then when your Prof asks the same question you'll have a correct reply all ready and waiting.

Here it is: "Protein is the part of a feed that produces most of the milk. DIAMOND CORN GLUTEN MEAL has 40% protein (often more) available for milk production. DIAMOND'S cost is such that every dollar invested gets you more real milk-making protein than you can get from a dollar's worth of any other feed. Therefore DIAMOND leads the list."—Q. E. D.

A fumble gave the 1927 men the ball on the 25 yard line. Reeves made fifteen yards on an end run for first down. Crosby was penalized five yards for off side play. Reeves made it first down on the next play. The next three plays brought the ball to the one yard line.

Gronberg Scores

Andrew was given the pigskin and in a line plunge appeared to go over for a touchdown, but the referee refused to allow it and the ball was given to the Crosby team six inches from the goal. Crosby punted and the ball was brought back to the 15 yard line. On the first play, Andrew to Gronberg, a pass resulted in the second touchdown. Andrew drop kicked for the final point.

Almost Score Again

When play was resumed Andrew kicked to the 20 yard line and the ball was run back fifteen yards. Crosby preferred to play a defensive game and the ball was punted to Andrew. On the next play Gronberg made it first down with a twenty yard run. Crosby broke up an Aggie pass. Schofield made eight yards through right tackle. Andrew made it first down. A pass, Andrew to Schofield netted twelve yards and first down. Andrew plunged through for six yards and Gronberg made it first down. Schofield made six yards and Andrew plunged through for four more, bringing the ball to the one yard line. It looked like another touchdown for the Freshmen but the high school line held and the ball went to Crosby on downs. At this period Coach Alexander sent several new men into the game in order to give them a chance to show their wares. Crosby punted to Andrew. Palmer, who had been sent in for Andrew returned the punt. As a Crosby man caught the ball the whistle blew and the first victory for the 1927 team was chalked up.

CAMPUS PHILOSOPHER

After a strenuous summer spent in pursuit of kopecs on the Storrs experimental plots, the Philosopher is back again—worse than ever.

Evidently, wine is the only thing that improves with age. Or rather, wine and women.

However, the Philosopher has several years to grow yet.

—CP—

The C. P.'s silence during the first few weeks of school is accounted for by the fact that he has been subjecting the freshman co-eds to a careful scrutiny. (Note the last sentence, girls. The use of big words is the only way to get by freshman English with Christoph and Sweet.)

As a result of his investigation, and after consulting men of judgment on the campus, the Philosopher announces the following with regard to the frosh co-eds:

Three are O. K.

Several more will pass in a crowd.
The rest are intellectual.

Rumors that the College Orchestra is to join Paul Whitman's, Inc., are emphatically denied by Arman Bulbulian.

The above wheeze is what my friend Mathewson would call "marvellous irony"—provided he did not know who wrote it.

"The Pomology Department prefers to harvest its own apples."

Sophomores at Springfield were dragged through the pond by the freshmen during the annual rope-pull this year. And yet they say it can't be done!

"Wanted—A good typewriter in the Campus office."—No co-ed need apply; Underwoods are preferred.

"Wanted—reporters for the Campus."—Co-eds acceptable.

The Sentence of the Week

Oh, every road I wandered by,
Trod beside me, close and dear,
The beautiful and death-struck year.

The Dairy Products Judging team left for the National Dairy Show at Syracuse, N. Y., Tuesday night to participate in the annual intercollegiate contest in Dairy Products judging. The members of the team are Donald W. Humphrey who was high man at the Eastern States Exposition, Lloyd W. Kenneth, and Allan C. Hotchkiss. Raymond E. Wing, on the Dairy Cattle judging team is alternate for the Dairy Products judging team.

"THE PRISONER OF ZENDA" IS WEEK-END PICTURE

"The Prisoner of Zenda," played by an all star cast, is the photo play to be presented in Hawley Armory Saturday evening.

All the gorgeous glamor and fascinating intrigue of Anthony Hope's famous romance is depicted in a vividly beautiful setting. The romantic Hall of Fame holds no more vivid or beloved characters than those in the "Prisoner of Zenda."

WE BEG PARDON

The Campus wishes to make a correction in the "Who's Who at Connecticut" published in the last week's issue. Leon S. Kaplan, '24, should have been named as president of the Mediator instead of H. W. Baldwin, '24.

A large group of interested students and members of the faculty heard a play-by-play account of the World's Series games this week from a large amplifier in front of the Main Building. Whenever the surging roars of the crowd came through the horn the boys with money on the game went wild, or pretty near fainted, as the case might be.

The Ex-Service Men's Club at the College expect to have a meeting called in the near future by Captain C. R. Crim for the purpose of outlining a course of action for the coming year. The roll of the club will be materially increased by taking in the several Federal Board men who arrived on the Hill this fall.

and Moreland did equally well at his position. Brink received several passes from Moreland and Jake Dunn went in hard for the tackles.

"Herald" Lauds Swem

The Boston Herald picked Tracy Swem as the outstanding player of the two teams. In writing up the game it said: "Tracy Swem, the mid-get halfback of the Aggie eleven is a dead ringer for Luke Urban, former All-American end for Boston College. He went after and handled forwards like the former Eagle captain."

STUDENT ORG DISCUSSES CHANGE IN VACATIONS

Shortening the Thanksgiving recess and lengthening the Christmas vacation was the business brought before the Student Org. meeting in the Armory last Friday night. After considerable discussion both for and against the change, the chair appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. Richardson, Palen and Purple to investigate the matter more thoroughly and present a report at the next Student Org. meeting.

A "pep fest" for the Tufts game at Medford last Saturday followed the Student Org. meeting.

WHO'S WHO AT CONN. AGGIE

Five members of the college faculty are listed in "Who's Who in America". They are:

Charles Lewis Beach, B.Agr., B.S., president.

Richard Elwood Dodge, A.M., Dean of the Two Year Course in Agriculture.

George Herbert Lamson, Jr., M.S., professor of Zoology and Geology.

Edmund Ware Sinnott, Ph.D., Dean of the Division of Science and professor of Botany and Genetics.

Willard Austin Wattles, M.A., assistant professor of English.

CONNIE SAYS

Have you looked over the new line of college jewelry? If not you have missed one of the worth while things on the Hill. Give yourself or the girl a treat and invest those loose shekels in something really worth while.

The dashing Aggie mermaids should spare no pains to preserve the silken, glossy texture of their hair while in the pool. Bathing caps of the approved Atlantic City style at seventy-five cents.

Keep abreast of the world. Hartford Times and Willimantic Chronicle on sale every day. Reserve your copy now.

For the prospective book purchaser. Time moves on apace and all unsold books will be returned to the publishers in a week. None reserved after that time and extra charges on all orders.

The freshman banner committee and all dance committees would save time and money if they would consult our congenial Mr. Mahoney before placing their orders for banners, decorations and the like. With his extensive purchasing power he can guarantee lower prices, better quality, quicker service than may be obtained elsewhere. Your Education Demands It

IF there's any one thing that students are entitled to have, it's a fountain pen that makes their thoughts flow freely. So don't let "False Economy" put an unruly pen in your hand. That is a mental hazard you can't afford to hold before your eyes throughout your college days. Pay a little more and use the pen that gives your thought free rein—the black-tipped, lacquer-red Duofold—the fountain pen classic.

Parker Duofold is not only handsomer than gold—its color makes it hard to lose. Its balanced swing and super-smooth point make it a fascinating pen to use—a point no style of writing can distort, no years of use can wear away.

Get the $7 Over-size Duofold or $5 Duofold Jr. or Lady Duofold now, and you're fixed for life. Neat gold pocket-clip or ring-end for ribbon or chain included free.

DONALD BARRETT CHAIR-MAN OF FRESHMEN

Miss Dorothy Hughes and Edward Collins Secretary and Treasurer Respectively.

At the first meeting of the freshman class, Donald Barrett of Hartford was elected chairman. Miss Dorothy Hughes was elected secretary and Edward Collins treasurer. Miss Mary Everts is to act as assistant treasurer in Holcomb Hall. Louis Belden, Henry Hope and Samuel Andrew were appointed to act as a freshman labor committee.

The subject of class dues was brought up and fixed at fifty cents a month. It was also voted to assess each member to pay for the rope used in the rope-pull.

The need of a faculty advisor was taken up and it was voted to have the chairman ask Mr. Christoph to lead the class of '27 in that capacity. Mr. Christoph is instructor in English and coach of varsity debate.

freshmen. These men will be required to participate in a debate at the next meeting of the club on, "Resolved, that women students be granted full membership in the college debating club," as a tryout for admission to the club. The debate will be held Wednesday evening, October 17, at 8:15 p. m. The two teams are made up as follows: Affirmative: M. L. Stephenson, captain, I. Selier, D. Anderson, and Carl Ajello. Negative: W. M. Easton, captain, E. R. Collins, D. W. Sturgis and I. Rabinowitz.

Any other candidates are asked to see the executive committee at this time.

An executive committee was appointed to take care of all debates in the club. The members are: Sidney Lifshitz, chairman, William A. Hutton and L. A. Loeb.

while the other will be presented in the spring. The remaining entertainments to be chosen will probably be musical concerts.

Entertainment Improving

Entertaining a student body is a very difficult task, much more difficult than it seems to the person who is to be amused, said a member of the Social Committee when interviewed by a Campus representative recently. Last year, continued the committeeman, the social committee entertained the students with moving pictures and an occasional concert, but there was much comment about these entertainments because those who made the comments did not know the difficulties the committee had to undergo in an effort to please everyone. However, said this representative, the committee has in the past few years succeeded in obtaining a better standard of amusement for the student body and hopes to continue this improvement.
